Description of Activities

1. Scholarship Program

- a. KLOW continues the Scholarship Award of $250.00 to a graduating high school senior, who has shown a desire to pursue a career in broadcasting. Managers Tony Coloff and Sue Coloff designed the program with, Dan Rosacker, Forest City High School guidance counselor, and select the recipient. On May 19, 2011, the scholarship recipient was Evan Eischen of Forest City, Iowa
- b. KLOW also participated in the Iowa Broadcasters Association Scholarship program, which awards scholarships to deserving high school seniors who study broadcasting during their college careers. In February, March and April of 2011, KLOW aired public service announcements promoting the availability of an application at the KLOW business offices.

2. Internship Program

KLOW offered a College Intern Program to 6 area colleges. This program was designed to help students acquire and improve skills needed for broadcast employment. The internship was advertised on the college bulletin boards and web sites of:

1. Waldorf College, Forest City, Iowa
2. Iowa Lakes Community College, Estherville, Iowa
3. Buena Vista University, Storm Lake, Iowa
4. North Iowa Area Community College, Mason City, Iowa
5. Riverland Community College, Austin, Minnesota
6. University of Northern Iowa, Cedar Falls, Iowa

KLOW Operations Manager Karl Wooldridge interviewed 1 student applicant, the only one to apply.

From June 6, 2011 to August 5, 2011, hired as a paid intern was: Kyle Acker, of Centre, Alabama, a junior student at Waldorf College in Forest City, Iowa.

3. Community Broadcast Skills Program

KLOW continued a program, designed to assist members of the community to acquire the skills needed for broadcast employment. KLOW advertised and recruited 1 local area person, and trained them with a hands-on on-the-job training opportunity conducted by KLOW Announcer Kit Cameron. The trainee has then been scheduled for paid parttime control board and announcing work hours on KLOW.

KIOW has continued another program designed to assist members of the community to acquire the skills needed for broadcast employment. Kit Cameron, Announcer, and Tony Coloff, General Manager, selected, trained, and supervised, 5 4-H members, from 2 different county fairs, to prepare, conduct, and record interviews with their County Fair Grand Champion winners, which are then broadcast on KIOW.

In July 2011, 4-H interns serving: from the Winnebago County Fair:
